chance of invention, the progress towards universal brotherhood, closer relations between capital and labor, one religion, founded on character and not on creed; a nobler and better society, were among the things predicted for the future.

General News in Brief.

Gladys Gills, the white woman who attempted to commit suicide Saturday night by swallowing a large number of antiseptic tablets, was saved from death by the heroic measures applied by her physician.

The Petersburg Savings and Insurance Company has declared a 4 1/2 per cent. dividend on its capital stock for the present quarter.

Engineer W. B. Spiers, who was severely scalded about the legs and arms Friday night in an accident on the Coast Line road, just outside of this city, is reported as getting along favorably at the Petersburg Hospital.

Inez Randolph, negroess, was assaulted and severely injured on the street Sunday night by some unknown person. She was struck on the head with a brick and badly cut.

The site for the proposed new baseball park in this city has not yet been selected. Meanwhile the management is looking for some good players for the next season.

Ida Clark, Prince George negroess, with five children dependent on her, was sentenced to thirty days in jail in the Police Court this morning for shoplifting at the 5 and 10-cent store.

Joseph Wheelhouse, a young white man of this city, who has been confined in the jail for some weeks, was taken out to Dinwiddie Courthouse to-day to be tried for robbing a Norfolk and Western car at Wilson's Depot several months ago. There are several other cases of interest on the criminal docket.

Methodist Sunday Schools. The monthly meeting of the Methodist Sunday School Association was held in Washington Street Church yesterday afternoon. Reports for the eight Sunday schools showed an aggregate register for the past month of 1,875, with average attendance of 1,355, or 72 per cent.

Rumor says that Petersburg is soon to have another large trunk and bag factory.

Mrs. V. C. Nunnally is suffering from a slight stroke of paralysis, received several days ago, in her home on Halifax Street, but is getting along favorably.

Herbert Field, son of Colonel E. M. Field, arrived in the city to-day from South America to attend at the bedside of his father, who has been ill from the effects of a fall. The colonel is better to-day than at any time since the accident.

A small gasoline launch belonging to R. S. Gilliam was accidentally sunk in the harbor this morning. Cause not known.

Shot in the Ankle. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wadesboro, N. C., December 19.—Boggs Gaddy was shot to-day by Boggs Trexler. The shooting occurred in front of the Trexler home, in the northern part of the town. Gaddy was in a buggy with two companions, and with his companions, was talking to Trexler about a recent trouble between them, when Trexler fired. Gaddy was shot in the ankle, a painful wound being inflicted, although it is not serious. Both parties are white men.

Nearly Entire Block in Newbern is Burned. Coca Cola Plant Destroyed—Negro Boy Breaks His Neck—White Man Drowns.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Newbern, N. C., December 19.—At 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning fire broke out on the property of W. F. Hill next to Trent River, and between South Front Street and Metcalf. Nine houses were destroyed, and the entire block, with the exception of N. E. Vincent's store and the storeroom of the Hyman Supply Co., was burned.

The plant of the Coca Cola Company was completely destroyed. The entire loss to Hill was about $5,000, with no insurance. Vincent's store was badly damaged by water. The loss on the Coca Cola plant is not known.

Last night about 10:30 o'clock the J. F. Taylor house, on National Avenue, occupied by Mr. Marshall, of the Roper Lumber Company, was found to be on fire. The flames spread, and the new home of J. O. Baxter was burned on the north side, and that of Henry Ebling, on the south side. Part of the furniture in each home was saved, but was badly damaged. The loss on the three amounts to about $15,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

Robert Dewey, colored, sixteen years old, was found in a hole in a lot on Queen Street about noon to-day with his neck broken. The boy was playing, and had been dead about half an hour when found.

Base Nelson, a white man about forty-five years old, fell from a boat at the Market dock this afternoon, and was drowned. The body was recovered in about fifteen minutes, and every effort made to resuscitate him, but with no effect. He leaves a wife and three children.

Another Seriously Injured and Expected to Die—Third Makes His Escape.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norton, Va., December 19.—In a general gun play late Sunday afternoon between Emmett Easterling and Lafayette Easterling, brothers, and Floyd Nash and his nephew, Irvine Nash, the two Easterlings and the younger Nash were all shot. Lafayette Easterling was killed instantly, and it is said that his brother, Emmett, cannot live. The wounds of the younger Nash are not so serious, but may prove fatal. The elder Nash escaped without injury, and the officers have not as yet succeeded in capturing him.

The shooting occurred on the mountain road leading from Wise to Coeburn and was witnessed by a man by the name of Dale. It seems that the Nash boys and Dale were passing some hot words, when the Easterling boys came up. They stopped for a moment, and then proceeded on their way. They were called to by the elder Nash, who opened fire on them about the time they turned to come back. The fire was returned by the Easterling boys, with above results.

It is said that something in the nature of a feud had existed between the two families, who lived in the same neighborhood, for some time. Both sides were expecting trouble and were prepared for it, when Sunday afternoon presented the opportunity for a settlement of differences. The elder Nash is about twenty-three years of age and married. The ages of the other participants in the affair ranged from eighteen to twenty years, and they were all unmarried.

The Easterlings were employed in the mine which was last week exploded at Tacoma, but were off duty at the time of the disaster. Nash cannot survive the night.

ARRESTED IN ROANOKE. Man Wanted in West Virginia for Murder Will Return Without Requisition. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., December 19.—C. E. Wallington, a white man, wanted at Welch, W. Va., for killing an unknown negro a month ago, was arrested here to-night and lodged in jail. He says he will return without requisition. According to Wallington, his victim, a negro man, was working under Wallington as a foreman. When Wallington told the strange negro to leave, he cursed the foreman and turned to leave. Wallington says he threw a small stone at the negro, striking him back of the ear and killing him. Wallington says a large number of negroes threatened to lynch him, and he was spirited away by friends.

NEGRO SHOT TO DEATH. White Man Kills His Assassin, Then Surrenders to Officers. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wadesboro, N. C., December 19.—Telephonic advices tell of a murder across Pee Dee River, near Mount Gilthead, yesterday. Robert Boggs, who keeps a store four miles from Mount Gilthead, shot and killed Henry Rush, a negro man. The report is that Rush went into the store, cursing and abusing Mr. Boggs, who ordered the negro to leave the store. He went out, but later returned and attacked Mr. Boggs with a knife, and Mr. Boggs shot him, death resulting instantly. Mr. Boggs gave up to the officers and will have a preliminary hearing to-morrow.

Goes to Lexington. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., December 19.—Hon. Harry St. George Tucker was called to Lexington to-day by the death of his nephew, J. Randolph Carmichael. He announced on leaving that upon his return after the holidays he and his family would permanently occupy the Thom residence, on Freemason Street.

An Enthusiastic Sportsman. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., December 19.—Hugh Chalmers, president of the Chalmers Motor Company, of Detroit, to-day returned to the city from the False Cape, where he has been gunning for several days. He reports the bagging of a large quantity of wild ducks and geese. Mr. Chalmers is enthusiastic over this section as a gunning ground during the winter months.

News of Petersburg

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
109 North Sycamore Street,
Petersburg, Va., December 19.

Walter P. Traylor, a well known farmer of Chesterfield county, died suddenly night before last at his home about three miles west of Matoaca. He was found dead in his bed Sunday morning. Mr. Traylor was about sixty-eight years old and well known in this section and in this city. He is survived by three sons and one daughter. Mr. Traylor was a Confederate veteran.

Mrs. Annie M. Gates, widow of Captain George Gates, aged about sixty-five years and highly esteemed by a large circle of friends, died very suddenly this morning at 9:15 o'clock at the residence of her son-in-law, R. L. Bowman, on High Street. Her death was caused by heart trouble, with which she had long suffered. Mrs. Gates was born at Harper's Ferry, and for many years lived in Wilmington, N. C. She is survived by five children—Mrs. R. L. Bowman and Miss Julia V. Gates, of Petersburg; W. K. Gates, of Maccles, Ga.; A. P. Gates, of Knoxville, Tenn.; and George Gates, of Pennsylvania.

Information was received by relatives and friends here of the sudden death of Mrs. Mary McNamara at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Smith, in Richmond. She was the widow of John McNamara, of this city, and was found dead in bed. She is survived by two daughters and one son—Mrs. Edward Smith, of Richmond; Mrs. Grover Wells, of Petersburg; and John McNamara, who lives in Pennsylvania.

Death of Venerable Woman. Mrs. Martha Traylor, aged seventy-two years, died at her home in Matoaca Sunday morning after an illness of some duration. She was much esteemed in the community, and is survived by two sons and two daughters.

Other Deaths. Mrs. Lillian Lee Myers died yesterday afternoon at her residence on Terrace Avenue after a long illness. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Davis, and is survived by her husband and parents.

Mrs. Carrie J. Gates, wife of M. W. Gates, died last night in her home in West Washington Street. She was a Miss De Shazo, of Dinwiddie county, where she has many relatives and friends. Her husband, four sisters and a three brothers survive her.

Welcome Service in Church. The services in St. John's Episcopal Church last night in welcome of the new rector, Rev. Pembroke W. Reed, late of St. Paul's Church, Berkeley, were participated in by a large congregation, which included many members of other Episcopal churches, which were closed in honor of the occasion. The sermon was delivered by Rev. R. W. Barnwell, of St. Paul's Church, and the clergy who took part in the services were Rev. C. B. Bryan, D. D., of Grace Church; Rev. Mr. Ribble, of the Church of the Good Shepherd; Rev. F. G. Scott, D. D., and Rev. J. Francis Ribble, of the Payne Divinity School.

Rev. Mr. Reed conducted the services and preached yesterday morning, and his congregation is greatly pleased with him.

Christmas Fireworks. Mayor Cameron to-day addressed a letter to President A. G. M. Martin, of the Board of Police Commissioners, suggesting that the police be instructed to prohibit the firing of fireworks during the holidays on Sycamore Street north of Washington Street and on Bank Street and the business sections of Bollingbrook and Old Streets, and that discretion be given the police to prohibit the use of fireworks in the vicinity of all wooden buildings.

A Peep into the Future. Rev. George E. Booker, D. D., preached to a large and deeply attentive congregation in Washington Street M. E. Church last night on the subject of "Wonderful Things That May Happen in the Next Hundred Years." The doctor took a prophetic peep into the future, and in his own eloquent style discussed changes that the signs of the times foretell. Wonderful improvement in agriculture and in mechanical invention, the progress towards universal brotherhood, closer relations between capital and labor, one religion, founded on character and not on creed; a nobler and better society, were among the things predicted for the future.

General News in Brief. Gladys Gills, the white woman who attempted to commit suicide Saturday night by swallowing a large number of antiseptic tablets, was saved from death by the heroic measures applied by her physician.
